Early Foundations: From the Hong Kong Film Academy to the Silver Screen

Jackie Chan was born in 1954 in Hong Kong. As a child, he joined the China Drama Academy, learning acrobatics, kung fu, and theatrical skills. Chan’s insistence on safety has led to the adoption of more sophisticated equipment and safety protocols across the industry. His pioneering use of “slow-motion” sequences in the 1987 film “Police Story” also opened the door for dynamic visual storytelling in action cinema.
